People Against Racism In Australian Hotels 1998

Demand

An end to the racially inspired 'dress-code' at the Mandorah Hotel.

Management told local whites that the reason for this 'dress-code' was...

"TO KEEP THE BLACKFELLAS OUT"

This follows an earlier decision by Management to remove the pool-tables...

"TO STOP THE BLACKFELLAS HANGING AROUND"

Now these greedhead bigots deny their racism...
Don't drink at a racist hotel !

Better a PARIAN than a LIAR!

Authorized by Mick Lambe, Coordinator PARIAN

This simple statement of intent, has led inexorably to the persecution of our anti-racism group, by a score of Territory and Federal government bodies.

Police raids and harassment, have been used in conjunction with illegal eviction attempts, to prevent us publicizing and legally challenging, the racism that corrupts democracy in the Northern Territory. (PARIAN 2001)
